BAS-RELIEF TO BE PRESENTED

Date Set For Exercises Over Castle Memorial Design.

The date of the presentation of the Castle memorial bas-relief, which has been installed in Parahi Hall, Oahu College, has been set for Wednesday, February 8. This memorial is a bas-relief of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Castle, sitting facing each other in a garden. It is a splendidly-executed design in bronze by Curzon Osborne, the local sculptor. The memorial was purchased by the trustees.

The exercises, which will begin on Wednesday afternoon, February 8, at 3:30 o'clock, are as follows:

RECREATIONS

PARK THEATRE TO BE REMODELED

The pretty little Park theatre will close on Saturday night for a general overhauling and remodeling. Manager Congdon stated this morning that he intends to make the Park theatre the prettiest and most comfortable in the city, an ideal summer theatre in every sense of the word. On Monday morning a gang of carpenters will be started in on the work of renovation, and the theatre will be again reopened as soon as the work is complete.

VAST CROWDS AT SAVOY LAST NIGHT

A vast crowd surged into the Savoy theatre last night attracted by the wonderful-voiced Doric Trio which is the hit of the season in vaudeville circles. The three young men have made a reputation in Honolulu that is lasting and this is attested by the packed houses which gather nightly. Last night was no exception and all seating and standing space was occupied.

The amateurs certainly did their part toward filling the theatre and the little ones and big ones, the awkward ones and the scared ones all contributed to the evening's merriment.

GLADSTONE SISTERS ARE WINNERS AT EMPIRE

With the loss of Crawford and Meeker, the comedians, who return to the Coast today, the Empire will have a shortened bill, but the little Gladstone Sisters are making up any shortage of bill by putting on a little more to their own performance. The Gladstones are simply wonderful for their power in drawing audiences and do not fail to please and get an ovation every time they appear. They are classy little performers.

The usual matinee today and a change of program tomorrow night.

PARK PUTS ON EXCELLENT FILMS

Not the least of the attractions of the Park theatre are its moving picture films. In fact the theatre made its first reputation by the excellence of the film service and this has been maintained ever since.

The Le Marest Brothers, topsy-turvy musicians, who feature piano playing as one of their eccentric stunts, the eccentricity being due to one of the team standing on his head while fingering the keys. The team is good. The Park will close for repairs and alterations next week.

MUSIC GALORE AT THE BIJOU THEATRE

Music galore is supplied this week at the Bijou theatre where Hughes' orchestra is rendering selections that are derived mainly from musical comedies operas. The orchestral part of the evening's entertainment is one of the Bijou's features. Next in line is the Bijou's amateur night, held on Fridays, when Kakaako, Kewalo, Palama and Nuuanu mass their best amateur talent upon the stage and give the audience an entertainment that is worth many times the price of admission.

The entire company will make a change of program tomorrow night.

There is not a real boy or girl in Honolulu who wouldn't give his eyes to be in the FLORAL PARADE. Why shouldn't yours?—It's a lesson in civic patriotism!

NO MILITARY IN FLORAL PARADE

Late Orders Prohibit Soldiers Taking Part in Any Civil Demonstration.

"Orders is orders," as the saying goes, and on that account there will be no military feature in the Floral Parade this year, as on December 30 General Order 230 was issued by Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, to the effect that military organizations could not take part in local celebrations.

Paragraph three, of which there was a most important omission made in the copy printed in the morning paper, provides that such participation may be had by troops stationed near cities when such has been the custom when authorized by department commanders, "whenever participation does not involve absence from their garrisons over night, loss of more than one day from their usual duties, or any expense to the government," the eleven words in heavy type being those which were left out of the order as published this morning, and which preclude any possibility of the garrison from Lihue being in the parade.

General Macomb, in discussing this order, stated to the Bulletin that as this was not a department he had no discretion in the matter of the troops participating.

"Hawaii is a part of the Department of California," said the general, "and should General Bliss, commanding that department, see fit, he could authorize the participation of the infantry from Fort Shafter and the artillery from the posts near Honolulu, as they would not have to be absent from their garrisons over night."

"As far as the cavalry at Schofield Barracks is concerned, it would be impossible for General Bliss even to give those troops authority to go into the parade. They would have to be absent from their garrison two nights and three days, one coming, one here and one returning, and only an order from the chief of staff of the army could give them such authority," he concluded.

There were five thousand men in line in the Manila Carnival for the military parade last year, but these men were assembled partly to participate in the war game which was scheduled to be held right after the carnival.

The troops were brought from the southern islands even for the carnival of eight days in the Pearl of the Orient, but as soon as that was over they were divided into the Red and the Blue army and went north, one by land and the other by water, to take part in the war game which was the attack and defense of the city of Manila, the invading army landing a hundred miles north and being met in the mountain passes and on the plains by the defenders.

Director Wall of the Floral Parade said this morning that he thought there was no use in agitating the matter further, and that the military feature would have to be given up.

"Unless we can have the mounted band from the Fifth and a squadron from that regiment, the picturesqueness and pomp of the military feature will fall flat, and so I think no effort will be made to communicate with General Bliss for the foot soldiers," he said.

COLLEGE OF HAWAII LEADS MARINE TEAMS

College of Hawaii is in the lead five points in the handball series being played with Marine teams, the totals after the two matches were played yesterday being 219-214.

It was the beginning of the second round, when the Marines went up against the college men on Y. M. C. A. courts and Fook On and Rice defeated Picariello and Holohan of the marines by 45 to 17.

In the second match of the afternoon Marcellino and Blart won from the marine team composed of Ogar and Williams, 45-28.

Ogar for the marines has issued a challenge to St. Louis College Alumni for a handball series, the teams to be either two, four or six men each.

Dr. Hand of the Y. M. C. A. several weeks ago tried to arrange a handball series with St. Louis alumni, but the series fell through because the St. Louis men would not play on the Y. M. C. A. courts, asking the other teams to play the whole series away from their own ground.
